William Jennings Bryan and his private secretary passed through South San Francisco Tuesday, en route to Hollister and Santa Cruz, where he is scheduled to make two addresses. He was greeted at San Mateo by M. J. Conway, chairman of the democratic county committee, and J. D. Bromfield of the San Mateo News. Mr. Conway escorted the distinguished visitor as far as Redwood City. Mr. Bryan expressed great admiration for the Peninsula flower gardens, and at his request Mr. Conway promised to send him some slips of San Mateo's choicest roses, to be planted in the garden of the Bryan home at Miami, Florida.

MRS. INGRAM SERVES ON MRS. PIKE JURY

Mrs. Sarah Ingram of South San Francisco was the first juror to be selected Wednesday to serve on the jury to try Mrs. A. W. Pike, society matron of Redwood City, indicted for shooting F. O. Stallman, San Francisco merchant, in the leg for plucking red berries from her home just before Christmas.

The jurors disagreed after deliberating less than an hour, and were dismissed by Superior Judge George Buck when a majority thought that they could not reach a verdict. The jury stood 10 to 2 for conviction.

TRAFFIC VIOLATORS FINED SUM OF $105

Wholesale arrests were made by the authorities here last Sunday of autoists who violated the traffic laws. But one of the offenders was charged with speeding. Fourteen of the autoists were from San Francisco.

Both San Jose and Oakland furnished one offender, while San Mateo furnished two.

Town Recorder J. J. Dowd imposed fines aggregating the sum of $105. The fines ranged between $5 and $10. Two cases were dismissed.

FRANK POOR PASSES AWAY AT COUNTY FARM

Frank Poor, aged 63, who several years ago was awarded $4000 damages as a result of an accident in which he was injured at the Fuller plant, passed away Monday at the county farm. He was under the care of Dr. W. C. Baker at the county hospital.

Poor was a shipbuilder by profession.

ENTHUSIASM HIGH HERE OVER BASEBALL RIVALRY

VETERANS OF THE PACIFIC COAST STEEL COMPANY IN RARE FORM.

(By Harry Donbaugh.)

The ball game Sunday between the Bears and Veterans of the Pacific Coast Steel Company will start at 10 o'clock a. m.

Although the Veterans were defeated by unfair decisions by the umpire and incorrect scores, they will try once more to get a square deal and win on the merits of class A baseball.

The feature of the game will be a footrace between Buster Mercks and Steve Nylan. There will be no limit on the betting. Pick your favorite.

Mr. Becker, manager of the Veterans or Forty-niners, thinking that perhaps there were holes in the bats, has ordered new balls from Baltimore and new bats from Boston. The fat man has promised not to fall down and Tom Hanlon says the company is too fast for him, so there will be a different score Sunday.

Henry Knott challenges any one to a footrace. Therefore, if you can run, be there and take down the change.

Tom Meilam claims his arm is in first-class condition, and A. N. Becker, manager of the Veterans, can certainly hand out enough conversation to put his team on the long end. Leave it to him, and come down and see the best game of the season.

CAMPAIGN FOR LOWER SWITCHING

MANUFACTURERS WANT PRESENT RATES CUT

The Manufacturers' Association of South San Francisco, an organization recently formed, is now conducting a campaign against the Southern Pacific for lower switching rates.

Upon the motion of F. A. Cunningham, the South San Francisco Chamber of Commerce passed the self-explanatory resolutions, which were sent to the railroad corporation, Mayor James Rolph Jr. of San Francisco and leading civic organizations of the Peninsula:

Whereas, The free switching district provided by the Southern Pacific Company for the Oakland side of the bay of San Francisco is more than twice as great as that provided for the San Francisco side of the bay; and

Whereas, The Southern Pacific Company imposes a rate of 50 cents per ton within the territory in which the city of South San Francisco lies, while a rate of only 25 cents per ton is required on the Oakland side of the bay for service of corresponding extent and character, and

Whereas, South San Francisco, as well as the entire San Francisco Peninsula, is likely to suffer immeasurable disadvantage if such discriminatory practice is permitted to continue.

Resolved, By the Chamber of Commerce of South San Francisco, that said chamber hereby unreservedly condemns this unjust and outrageous discrimination; be it further

Resolved, That this Chamber of Commerce put forth every effort to aid in securing a proper adjustment of freight rates and switching privileges about the bay of San Francisco.

Fuller Paint Company Raises All Salaries

LOCAL PLANT RECOGNIZES HIGH LIVING COST

The Fuller Paint Company has recognized the high cost of living, and has voluntarily increased the pay of all the employes of the South San Francisco plant the sum of 25 cents a day.

There are more than 300 men employed by the company here, and the announcement made Thursday was all the more gratifying to the men as it came voluntarily on the part of the company.

As one of the men puts it: "The company's act in recognizing the greatly increased cost of the necessities of life is a step in the right direction. The company, by increasing the pay of its men, is doing its 'little bit,' and I consider that 'little bit' an act of patriotism."

This is the second raise this year. The Fuller company increased the wages of the men 25 cents a day the first of the year, and all men who had been in the employ of the company for a year were given a present of one month's salary.

Later it became known that some of the men were raised 50 cents a day.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE ASKED TO CO-OPERATE IN INCREASING AGRICULTURAL PRODUCTION

The following is self-explanatory:

"WAR DEPARTMENT, HEADQUARTERS WESTERN DEPARTMENT, San Francisco.

"Chamber of Commerce, South San Francisco—Gentlemen:

Necessity for Increasing Agricultural Production in California.

"The time is becoming so short, if an increase in California crops is to be made possible, I conceive it my duty in line with the request of the President to urge upon you the necessity, both as an organization and individually through your members, to use every influence possible to bring about the result desired.

"I request that you call an immediate meeting of your members, organizing them into active committees to personally interview every farmer and every individual who has available land and urging immediate planting of such crops as are likely to mature if planted now. I am sure the professors and graduate students of the agricultural departments of the universities of California stand ready to co-operate with you in every way by giving their advice as to what they consider the surest crop under the varying conditions.

"My request must not be misunderstood to be in any way in conflict with the eventual organization of the conservation of food production as being completed by the government. It is only for the purpose of temporarily meeting the present local emergency.

"Yours very truly,

"WM. L. SIBERT,

"Brigadier-General, U. S. Army, Commanding."

The card reads:

"The President thanks you cordially for the good will which prompted your kind message, which has helped to reassure him and keep him in heart."

FILLET OF FISH.—Boil any good whitefish in a cloth until tender. Remove skin and bones. Arrange on a platter and with a forcing bag make a border of mashed potato. Season fish with salt, pepper and paprika. (A few minced mushrooms are a fine addition, but not necessary.) Cover with a thick white sauce. Then sprinkle on some grated mild cheese, more salt and pepper and some bits of butter rolled in flour. Put in a hot oven and cook until cheese is melted and browned. Serve at once.

Timbale of Salmon.—One can of salmon, four eggs, four tablespoonfuls cream, salt and pepper to taste. Remove the salmon from the can and reject all bone and skin. Mash the salmon fine, adding slowly the cream, then add the salt and pepper and the yolks of the eggs well beaten. Beat the whites of the eggs to a stiff froth, then stir them carefully into the mixture. Fill greased custard cups two-thirds full of this mixture and put cups in a pan of hot water and bake fifteen minutes. When serving, a pan of peas, heated and placed as a border on the dish in which the timbales are served, makes a dainty dish.

Fish Timbale.—Chop finely one pound of raw whitefish and press it through a sieve. To two cupfuls of the fish add the beaten yolks of two eggs, two tablespoonfuls of bread crumbs soaked in milk and rubbed through a sieve, one teaspoonful of salt, one-fourth teaspoonful of pepper, a grating of nutmeg and one-third teaspoonful of onion juice. Beat until light, fold in the stiffly beaten whites of four eggs, turn into a buttered mold, cover with oiled paper, stand it in a pan of hot water and bake about twenty-five minutes in a moderate oven. Unmold and serve with almond sauce. Almond Sauce: Chop one-half cupful of blanched almonds and brown slightly in three tablespoonfuls of butter; blend in two tablespoonfuls of flour mixed with one teaspoonful of salt and one-fourth teaspoonful of paprika, then add slowly one pint of rich milk and stir and cook until thickened.

SCHOOL TRUSTEES OF COUNTY CONVENE NEXT SATURDAY

PROGRAM OF INTEREST PREPARED FOR ANNUAL MEETING AT REDWOOD CITY.

The annual convention of the school trustees of San Mateo county will be held in the superior court room at Redwood City on Saturday, May 19th, commencing at 9:15 a. m. The law allows the expenses of only one trustee from each district, but County Superintendent Roy W. Cloud hopes that others will attend.

A program of interest has been prepared. State Senator M. B. Johnson will talk on recent school legislation. Superintendent J. W. Cagney of Hollister will speak on problems related to trusteeship, and Mrs. J. W. Henshall of the state library, Sacramento, will tell of school library work.

The following extract from the school law is of interest to the school boards:

"The superintendent of every county in which there are more than twenty school districts may hold one trustees' meeting each year, and it shall be the duty of one school trustee of each school district of the county in which said meeting is held to attend the same and participate in its proceedings. The school trustees of each district shall select the trustee whose duty it shall be to attend such meeting, and each trustee so selected shall be allowed his actual traveling expenses incurred in going to and re-

She Travels In This Kind of Suit

Design by Franklin Simon & Co., New York.

WELL tailored is this fabric of navy and white checked wool, set off with white broadcloth collar and cuffs. The Norfolk effect of the jacket is strapped down with three bone buttons. Faced with faille, the rough blue straw sailor hat is banded by a two tone ribbon to match the suit.

The custom of wearing black for mourning and white for wedding has been reversed. The bride may now wear black, and the one in mourning may be entirely garbed in white.

A feature of an organdie blouse is a collar made to resemble suspenders. The two side hems of the collar extend to the waist line, where they are fastened. Loose plaits in front do much to emphasize the effect.

A Little Old Man Met Him.

Daddy's Bedtime Story—

SOME BOYS
CHOP WOOD

[Adapted from Grimm's Fairy Tales.]

JACK sat down on daddy's left side and Evelyn on the right. When they kept quite still daddy began: "There was once a man who had three sons. The youngest was called Dumpling, which is about the same as calling him blockhead. He wasn't quite a fool, but he was thick at understanding things, and at times the whole household mocked and made fun of him, just as if he could help being stupid. I'm sure all of us would be clever if we knew how."

"Now it happened that the oldest son took it into his head one day to go into the woods and chop wood. So his mother gave him a nice cake and a bottle of wine, so that when he got hungry working so hard he might have a good meal in the woods."

"On his way to the woods a little old man met him with 'Good day, sir. Please give me a little bite of your cake and a drink from your bottle.'"

"But the clever young man said: 'Give you my cake and my wine? No; I thank you. I need all I have myself.'"

"And away he went into the woods to chop. He soon found a tree that pleased him and began to chop away at it. But he missed his stroke, his ax slipped, and he cut himself so badly that he had to hobble home."

"Now, you children will probably guess that it was the little old man who had sent him this bad luck in spite of his cleverness."

"Then the second son thought he would like to chop wood. So his mother gave him a cake and a bottle of wine too. He had not gone far when the same little old man met him and asked him for a bite to eat and a drink from the bottle. But this boy, like his brother, thought himself too clever for the old man. So he cried: 'The more you eat the less there will be for me! Go your way!'"

"The little old man took good care that he should have the reward of stinginess. So the second stroke of the ax in a tree glanced off into the boy's foot, and, just like his brother, he was forced to hobble home."

"Then Dumpling said, 'Father, I want to go to the woods to chop wood, like the other boys.'"

"Said the father: 'Your clever brothers have only lamed themselves. You had better stay at home, for you know less than they do about the business of wood chopping.'"

"But Dumpling teased and teased, and at last his father exclaimed: 'Then go your way. You will be wiser when you have ached for your folly.'"

AFTER THE FIRE

TWO PICTURES

"John Doe lost his house with all its contents by fire last night. Mr. Doe had his property well insured, and says he will have a new residence started as soon as the ashes of the old one are cool."

"The home of Richard Roe was burned last night, together with all the household furniture and clothing of the family. Mr. Roe had no insurance and the loss falls very heavily upon him. Relatives and friends will care for the family temporarily."

The two pictures are not at all overdrawn. They are both being reproduced every day.

If your home should burn to-night, WHICH PICTURE WOULD FIT YOUR CASE?

Be wise—see us NOW. After the fire is too late.

"A Daughter of the Sea" Coming to Royal Theatre

What the Equitable motion pictures people declare is one of the best of their series of five-part photodramas is "A Daughter of the Sea," which, with dainty Muriel Ostriche as the star, is coming to the Royal Theatre on Thursday, May 17th. It is a play in which a down east fishing village is used as one of the principal locations, with the blowing up of a yacht as one of the incidents of the marine section of the plot. Miss Ostriche has won much fame as a motion picture star, and her interpretation of the fisher maiden in this striking drama reveals the possession of powers which have never been called into play in her previous experiences. She has risen to the occasion in a manner which stamps her as a fine actress, and, with the entirely adequate support provided, has accomplished a beautiful piece of work. The whole production, especially the photography, is a new forward step for the producing company, and will be a treat to lovers of the silent drama.

CONTRACT FOR ANOTHER GAP IN "MISSING LINK" ROAD

A contract for the construction of the state highway on El Camino Real in front of Wellesley Park, Redwood City, was awarded by the board of supervisors Monday to the Federal Construction Company of San Francisco for $5964.38. Five bids were received for the work as follows, that of the Federal Construction being the lowest:

Tieslau Bros., $7431.75.
Frank Bryant, $7332.02.
Federal Construction Company, $5964.38.

Blanchard, Brown & Co., $7169.72.
The work of constructing this necessary part of the highway will begin within the next two weeks and will be under the supervision of County Engineer James V. Neuman. The building of the highway between Beresford and the Finger bridge in Redwood City, known as the "Missing Link," is now being performed by the state highway commission. The completion of both stretches will mean a continual highway from San Francisco to San Jose on the west side of the Southern Pacific Company's tracks, and will do away with the dangerous crossings at Beresford and at Redwood City.

Paper to Be Plenty

The news that Lord Northcliffe's Newfoundland paper mills will be placed at the disposal of American publishers, provided the paper is distributed among the smaller publishers, who are the ones most suffering from the shortage, will be very good news, not merely to those responsibly engaged in the newspaper business, but also to their readers, who are the whole people, and to their advertisers, who constitute the whole business community. The relief of the small publishers who have been buying from hand to mouth at double prices will, of course, lessen the pressure all the way up the line, and will thereby probably make unnecessary either the drastic economies in space or the drastic increases in price which might otherwise have been forced on the larger publishers.

There is no business the disturbance of whose conditions would have so greatly demoralized all other business. If the newspapers of the United States could not continue on their present scale, neither could the knowledge of what is going on in the world continue on its present plane. If the newspapers were obliged to curtail advertising, that curtailment would slow up all other businesses also.

The near-famine in paper has already taught the newspapers prudence and caution. The reckless wastage of former years and the foolish sensationalism which went with it have generally stopped. This is better for the newspapers and for the people.

But a curtailment of the paper supply below a reasonable normal, or a forcing of paper prices to a point which would have compelled great increases in subscription rates or drastic curtailment of advertising space, would have changed the whole face of the intellectual and business life of America.

The releasing of Lord Northcliffe's mills is only one of the factors in the immediate situation. But it seems to have been the final and decisive one. The whole situation calls for congratulation.—Fresno Republican.

As the Editor Sees It

With a foreign war on our hands and possible famine staring us in the face, every man in the United States who is mentally and physically able should be required to either fight or work. If a chronic loafer is found who will neither fight nor work, then it is incumbent upon the authorities to take him into custody, put him in a field and COMPEL him to aid in the production of the vast quantities of foodstuffs that are required to keep the wolf from the American door. No sentiment or friendship should be allowed to sway those whom we have placed in authority over us, for the public welfare must predominate over every other consideration. To put the case bluntly, America MUST WORK OR STARVE.

The cost of living is becoming intolerable. Upon even the flimsiest excuse prices of foodstuffs are raised, and if no excuse exists they are boosted on general principles. Millions of people who are dependent upon their daily labor find it almost impossible to keep soul and body together. In hundreds of thousands of cases their vitality is slipping away from pure lack of sufficient nourishment. Yet in the very face of this the insatiable food speculators and profit grabbers are turning the screws tighter every day. There appears to be but one way in which this sucking of the blood of humanity can be stopped, and that is for the government to take prompt action and fix a maximum price at which every article of food is to be sold, and in fixing the maximum price should be first scheduled down to normal. The fact that a scarcity in foodstuffs exists should not be accepted as an excuse for allowing prices to remain at their present outrageous figures. And the same action should be taken with reference to every article of necessity that we use.

India's peanut crop is said to be phenomenally large this season. But who wants to substitute a peanut for a spud?

What can the women of our town do to help win the war? She can do much—many things. The principal thing she can do, however, is to REDUCE THE COST OF HER OWN TABLE by increasing the production of garden foods at home. Every penny's worth of food she raises releases just that much that can be devoted toward feeding some other person who has no place for a garden. In addition to feeding the people of our own country, we must supply food for the people of England, France, Russia and Italy, in which countries so many people are fighting that they cannot produce enough food to keep their people from starvation. While the head of the family in this town is conducting his business affairs, the wife and young sons and daughters can do much in the garden, and in this crisis it will be a signal honor for them to do so. When you see a woman planting and weeding and caring for her garden you will know that THERE IS A WOMAN WHO HAS PRINCIPLE AS WELL AS PLUCK, and one who places the welfare of her country above the soiling of her hands.

Hundreds of men are enlisting and millions are going to the ball games.

If your boy balks at using a hoe, escort him to the woodshed and do unto him as you were done by in your own youthful days. It may pain him, but it will train him—and he'll hustle.

In these days of scarcity of foodstuffs there is no room for the professional beggar or the hobo. Give him a hoe—or the boot.

Chats With the Editor

Are you one of the many who hate to pay out cold cash for postage in mailing out bills to delinquent subscribers? Don't do it any longer. Paste the bills in the current issue of your paper.

Mr. Guy U. Hardy, editor of the Daily Record, Canon City, Colo., says the authority for so doing is contained in the postal laws and regulations of 1913, page 232, section 441, which reads as follows:

A "SKIRTING" MOVEMENT TO AVOID A SKIRMISH.

—Evans in Baltimore American.

"Any publisher or news agents may enclose in their publications bills, receipts and orders for subscriptions thereto, but the same shall be in such form as to convey no other information than the name, place of publication, subscription price of the publication to which they refer, and the subscription due thereon."

It is also referred to in section 442, page 233.

Mr. Hardy states that he simply pastes the bill in the inside of the paper, where the whole family can see it, and that it GETS THE MONEY. He doesn't let it go at one billing. If they don't come across he keeps on billing until he gets it or finds out that they are deadheads, in which case he cuts them off his list.

In one year he saved $150 in postage through this method, and that, to a good many country publishers, means office rent. I would advise you to try it yourself. If it is good for Hardy, it is just as good for you.

Some few publishers, as well as others, have imbibed the mistaken idea that our war is bound to produce hard times. But it will not.

Let us look the facts in the face.

Our allies—England, France, Russia, Italy, Serbia and the smaller nations—all require immense stores of war supplies and foodstuffs. They can only produce a very limited supply at home, hence they must depend upon the United States to supply these stores for them. The stored-up and hidden wealth of the United States is being loaned to our allies in order that they may finance the war, but this vast sum does not actually cross the water. It will remain in this country practically intact, but, instead of being hoarded up as heretofore, it will be used to pay for these enormous quantities of stores. It, therefore, will be put back into circulation in this country and will spread out over the land like water suddenly released from a giant reservoir. Every nook and corner of the country will get its share, and every man who is not too lazy to work will participate in the getting.

There is always a relapse after the first shock of war, but that is even now passing away. In a few weeks it will cease to exist, and the country will be a humming hive of industry.

Get busy, brother—annex the ads, and get YOUR share.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

To Property Owners on Commercial and Railroad Avenues and Cross Streets.

This paving and other work done was under a contract entered into by the City of South San Francisco, under the provisions of the "Street Improvement Act of 1911." The bill is now due. You can pay the same at the City Hall until May 18, 1917; if you do not wish bonds issued, pay it before then and we will immediately release our lien.

In accordance with above Act of 1911, Serial Bonds of Act of 1915 bearing seven per cent interest will be issued to represent all unpaid assessments. They extend over a period of nine years from July 2, 1918, and payment of interest must be made in gold coin at the office of the City Treasurer, as follows:

Interest at seven per cent (7%) on the unpaid principal commencing at date of issue, on each January 2nd, and July 2nd, until the full amount of the assessment is paid. Failure to make any payment of interest on due dates subjects the property to sale by the city in the same manner as with delinquent taxes.

The bonds constitute a first lien on the property, taking precedence over mortgages, deeds of trust, etc., and are readily sold to investors seeking a safe investment bearing a high rate of interest. We have an investor ready to take all bonds issued on this job.

Seven per cent interest is being charged on all unpaid assessments from April 30, 1917, but if paid before May 18th no interest will be charged.

It is to the interest of the property owner to pay the assessment before it goes to bond, as he not only avoids the interest, but keeps the title to the property clear. Should he desire to dispose of the property or negotiate a loan, it will be necessary to pay the full assessment and all of the interest for the full period of ten years and then take up an outstanding bond; and from nine to twenty months' notice must be given bond holder and interest paid for that time for this privilege, at the end of this time, unearned interest may be claimed less notice period.

The foregoing is stated for your information and guidance and to save annoyance and disappointment due to lack of knowledge of the law governing the method of payment for street improvements and when desiring to release the lien after the bond has been sold to an investor.

Payment of the assessments may be made at the office of the Superintendent of Streets, City Hall, South San Francisco, Cal., or by check made payable to the order of City Street Improvement Co. and mailed to the Company's office, Seventeenth and Harrison Streets, San Francisco, Cal. City Street Improvement Co. Advt.

Soil, Drainage and Fertilizer. Prepared by the U. S. department of agriculture.

CUT flower roses thrive in a well drained soil that is not too dry and is well supplied with organic matter. The hybrid perpetuals succeed best in clay loam or in a soil with a clay subsoil. They do not succeed so well in gravel soils. Many of the tea roses and their hybrids succeed in very light lands if well supplied with organic matter and water, although the ideal soil is a loamy one. A well enriched soil and one reasonably constant in its ability to supply the plant with moisture is the chief requirement. On the other hand, it must be well drained, as roses will not grow when water stands about their roots.

In heavy clay soils or wherever water is liable to stand it is desirable to provide artificial drainage. This is best done by excavating to a depth of three feet, placing a twelve inch layer of stones in the bottom, covering these with inverted sods and then refilling the bed with well prepared soil. This layer of drainage should be connected with some proper outlet for carrying off the water. A drain of a similar layer of stones one foot or more wide or a tile should lead to some main drain, a sewer or to an opening on lower land, so that surplus water will be carried away immediately. In well drained soils such special precaution is not necessary. Sometimes the layer of stones without the outlet drain will be sufficient. The use of rotted cow manure or well prepared compost is even more important for cut flower roses than for border roses.

ANSWER FIRE ALARM IN NINE-MINUTE RUN

Last Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock an alarm of fire was sent in from the Growers' rice mill by the watchman. The firemen immediately responded, but the fire proved nothing but a little chaff smoldering in the field. The truck made the run in nine minutes.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

(Charles A. Sands.)

The Halfmoon Bay high school issued a challenge to play the local team a game of baseball on the local grounds last week. On account of a celebration being held there, the game was postponed and they decided to play to-day (Saturday) at 10:30 o'clock. As a means of retaliation for the defeat suffered in the Palo Alto game, the local team have vowed that they will do their very best to beat Halfmoon or know the reason why the game was lost. After much practicing Captain Mahoney gave his opinion that the team is in good shape and stands a good chance of defeating the rival team.

Meetings were held by the freshman, sophomore, junior and senior classes for the purpose of choosing colors to designate their class. The results were as follows: Freshmen, gold; sophomores, green; juniors, gold and white, and the seniors, blue and white. These colors will be put in the high school annual, which is being edited by the students and will be ready for distribution on June 1st. The students look forward to the annual as being a success and wish to heartily thank the local merchants who have aided them by their advertisements in making it so.

A meeting was also held to choose a captain for the baseball team and one for the basketball team. Joe Mahoney was re-elected captain of the baseball team and James Smith was elected captain of the basketball team for the ensuing year.

A cake and pie sale was held in the local high school on Friday, May 3d, by the students and faculty. As usual, the sale proved to be more of a success than was anticipated. All the pastry on hand was sold and the total sum aggregated $11.

For Sale—A snap; lot on Baden avenue, 37½140 feet. Address P. O. Box 186. Advt.

American Press Pictorial Review of Week

News Snapshots
Of the Week

The allied commissioners here had little time for anything but conferences, but their visit to Mount Vernon will be a feature of their stay never to be forgotten. The above photograph, taken at the home of the Father of Our Country, shows: No. 1, Joffre; No. 2, Viviani; No. 3, Secretary of State Lansing, and No. 4, Arthur J. Balfour. The selective draft bill was hastened through both houses of congress by an enormous majority. Coincident with Joffre's plea for American troops at once, it was announced that General Petain, hero of Verdun, would take supreme command of the allied troops in France. Only a few days after the gun crew on the American ship Mongoiia, in charge of Lieutenant Ware, U. S. N., had sunk a submarine the Vacuum was torpedoed with a loss of many American gunners. Duke of Abruzzi and G. Marconi will lead a commission here from Italy. The trial of F. von Rintelen, German spy, produced several sensational features.

Davis of Burlingame has asked the State Railroad Commission to review the case in which the city of Burlingame alleged that the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company had discriminated in rates within the boundaries of the city, and that the rates of the company should be made uniform and the excessive rates for at least a year back be paid by rebates.

A SUGGESTED PLAN OF BASEBALL GROUNDS AND STADIUM FOR SOUTH SAN FRANCISCO (REDWOOD CITY'S PROPOSED NEW STADIUM)

SURVEYORS MAKE TRIP OVER PROPOSED SKYLINE ROAD

INSPECTION OF BOULEVARD ROUTE STARTS BY EXPERTS FROM COUNTIES.

James V. Neuman, county surveyor of San Mateo county, with Herman L. Ryder, county surveyor of Santa Clara county, and the county surveyors of San Francisco and Santa Cruz counties, will make an inspection of the proposed route for the Skyline boulevard Thursday, under the personal direction of State Highway Engineer Fletcher. Each of the counties will then be able to estimate the cost of the survey, so that there will be no unreasonable delay before the actual construction of the work is begun.

The Skyline boulevard is making a big impression on the federal government because of its importance for war defense. The general route of the boulevard, which is to be used for war defensive purposes in case of need, will be:

From Sloat boulevard along the west shore of Lake Merced, gradually ascending to meet the present Halfmoon Bay road about a mile west of Colma; then following this road for a short distance and proceeding along by the Spring Valley lakes to meet the road from Crystal Springs to Halfmoon Bay; thence along the ridge to the junction of the Saratoga and Big Basin roads, and from there southerly to connect with the Los Gatos-Santa Cruz highway.

TRAFFIC OFFICER FATHER.

Traffic Officer James B. Logan of Menlo Park is all smiles to-day. And "Jimmy" has just cause to be happy, for the stork presented Mr. and Mrs. Logan with a bouncing baby girl at the Red Cross Hospital in San Mateo Tuesday. This is the first child in the Logan family, and its arrival is the cause for much rejoicing.

AT METROPOLITAN HALL

A dance will be given by the young ladies of the Bethany Guild of Grace Episcopal Church this evening in Metropolitan Hall. The girls are working very hard and the indications are that the evening will be a great success. Tickets for 25 cents are being sold by the members of the guild and can be had at the door.

It is hoped that the general public of South San Francisco will turn out in their usual numbers.

Don't forget the dance given by the Bethany Guild to-night.

The South City Vampires were defeated by the Eureka Valley Merchants by a score of 23 to 3. The batteries for the local team were Welte and Wallace and for the Merchants Solinsky and Ambrose. The South City team played against odds, as the other team advertised for a 14-15-year-old team, but all turned out to be over 17 years of age. Some of them had their children with them.

LADIES' AID SOCIAL.

The social gathering of the Ladies' Aid for April was held at the home of Mrs. W. H. Coffinberry on Miller avenue. A large number of ladies were present and a most delightful social time was enjoyed by all.

OUT-OF-TOWN VISITORS.

Among those present were Miss Landis and Mrs. Verney from Howard-street Church, San Francisco, and Mrs. W. J. McCuen of Oakland, a former resident of this city.

TALKS ON AID WORK.

Miss Landis gave a most entertaining talk on the aid work done at Howard-street Church and commended the ladies of St. Paul's Church for what they had accomplished.

Miss Minnie Houghton delighted the company with a piano solo, beautifully rendered.

SONGS BRING ENCORES.

Mrs. Verney sang in her usual charming manner and both ladies gracefully responded to an encore. Mrs. James Ditton also delighted the audience with two beautiful solos. Delicious refreshments were served, and all felt that a most delightful and profitable afternoon had been spent.

NEXT SOCIAL MEETING.

The next social meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Tose on Baden avenue, above the schoolhouse. Mrs. Charles Young will assist in the entertainment and all friends are cordially invited.
